It's Nashville Time!

Dennis DeVito HM 6758 – LCCA Convention Manager

It's been three years since anyone said, "Welcome to the LCCA Annual Convention". But soon in July 2022, many of us will share these greetings, reintroduce ourselves after an extended absence, for the moment forget about the news and getting old while we take time out to talk and think trains with so many of our friends.

And to imagine all this in Nashville – the county's heartland. What a destination and what venues for those of us wanting to get out. Nashville, well known as the "Music City," has become the center for activities beyond those related to music. This year, 2022, we will get to experience the best of both. Music City, Opry Land, Country Music Hall of Fame visits intermixed with the History at Belle Meade and a Civil War battlefield tour (and of course to Chevy land – the Corvette Museum in Bowling Green). Throw in a few layout tours. Add the excitement with our modular layouts at the hotel targeting 80 modules and hoping for more. For kids and grandkids there will be several special events. A quality hotel, another super Lionel Seminar, the Get Acquainted Party, and of course the Gala Banquet. And don't miss the exceptionally long ride on the Tennessee Central Railroad or the evening dinner boat ride on the General Jackson.

It has been a strange three years since our Reno Convention – a lot has happened, yet the LCCA has been able to retain its wallet-friendly prices on tours.

All details are released with this February issue of The Lion Roars. Remember you can always get to the LCCA website and find forms, tour times and details, and to register by searching #LCCANashville on any computer or mobile device. We will be staying at the Sheraton Music City Hotel in Nashville which has set up an exclusive registration website <https://book.passkey.com/e/50145499>. There is free on-site parking for hotel guests. And remember, the first 400 members to register and stay at the hotel for three nights will get the 2022 LCCA convention registration gift – a R. J. Corman Gondola produced by Lionel exclusively for the LCCA.

Wear a mask, don't wear a mask, take a shot, or not – all LCCA members and their families are invited and welcome. Please take any medical precautions that you feel are appropriate, or as prescribed by your physicians. The LCCA does not offer specific Covid recommendations but will support and enforce local and Federal directives.

We will see you there!

We're Looking For a Few Good Volunteers

Hey, everyone. Looking for an opportunity to become involved with the LCCA? I'm looking for a few good members to help out and volunteer this year at our Nashville Convention to be held in July, 2022. My name is Tim Fuhrmann and I'm the LCCA Convention Volunteer Coordinator for our National Conventions.

We are looking for both existing members who either have participated before or not, and new members. If you have helped previously and received in the past an email from me, just let me know you're still interested. Also, if your spouse helped out and is again willing to pitch in, that would be wonderful. Please send me their name. If there has been any change in your email address or mobile phone number, let me know that too.

We cordially invite our new members to get involved. This is a great way to make new friendships and develop long-lasting relationships. It will be fun and most rewarding! If you are a new member, willing to help out, and will be attending Nashville, please send me your name, membership number, and current mobile phone number. I will keep this information strictly confidential for use only as it pertains to volunteering at our upcoming convention in Nashville.

We have needs for bus captains, train attendants, trading hall monitors, seating hosts, banquet set up and tear down, and silent auction workers, to name a few areas. You can email me at fuhrmannim@hotmail.com. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions or want further information. I look forward to meeting and talking with you.

LCCA 2022 Nashville Convention Tours

Dienzel Dennis RM 6713 – Tour Manager

Welcome to Nashville, Music City USA, and capitol of the great state of Tennessee. We are glad you have decided to join us for this LCCA Convention #52. It has been a long three years since we last met in Reno. Let's make up for it now! We have a total of 16 tours consisting of 28 different venues for your entertainment, enjoyment and education. There is only one place where you must choose between two tours and that is on Thursday afternoon (Tour #12 and #13). Otherwise, you can take every tour we have made available, if you so desire. I'll be looking for each of your smiling faces as we load the buses for each adventure.

Tour #1 – Saturday, July 23, 2022
The Saturday Night Grand Ole Opry 6 – 10 p.m.
No limit on this tour, if you sign up early.
Ticket $99

Nashville is known as "The Music City", and Saturday night finds us going to the world famous "Grand Ole Opry!" The Grand Ole Opry started in the Ryman Auditorium (the Mother Church of Country Music) in 1925 before moving into its new venue on March 16, 1974 where it has continued weekly for the past 47 years. The bus will take us for just a short ride to the front of the Opry house to unload and proceed into the most famous Opry House in the world! The Grand Ole Opry has been operating continually for 96 straight years, never missing a Saturday night live show on radio station WSM. This adds up to 4,992 performances and will reach well over 5,000 by the time we visit. The LCCA has reserved enough seats for everyone who signs up for this production. All our unsold seats must be released along the way as we get closer to show time. We are told this event is on most people's bucket list, so don't miss your chance. The seating capacity of the Opry House is 4,372, and we can assure you, there's not a bad seat in the theater. The show runs exactly 2 hours with live entertainment and always has a surprise guest star appearing. Who will it be this time? The all-star lineup will be announced shortly before hand, so be prepared to be entertained by the best stars in country music. After the show, the bus will escort us back to the Hotel to get some rest before the BIG all day train trip starting Sunday morning. What a great way to start our 52nd convention!

Tour #2 – Sunday, July 24, 2022
Tennessee Central All Day Train Excursion
7:30 a.m. – 6 p.m. 400 seat maximum on this tour with extra perks. Ticket $129

We will depart the hotel at two different times, 7:30 & 8:30 a.m. We will call these Group A (7:30) and Group B (8:30). Group A will arrive first and have an hour to visit the TCRR museum and visit the restoration barn where N.C. & S.L steam engine # 576 is being restored. How far along this restoration process will be on this 4-8-4 Dixie is anyone's guess. Group B will arrive at the depot just in time for both groups to board the train at the same time. (9 a.m.) When we depart Nashville, each coach will have a docent/guide to explain the train as well as the beautiful Tennessee landscape we will traverse. This excursion will be around 100 miles long on a train consisting of four motor power engines, a F-unit & two BF-units (or) one E-unit, two B-units & one GP-7; also eight coaches with 436 occupancy including a special dome coach (more on the dome later), four dining cars (184 capacity), a souvenir car, and a power generating car. Please be aware that the consist may change as we get closer to excursion time as some units may be in maintenance. It is hard to know this far out (almost a year). We will have room available for lots of riders on this 18-unit consist. Come along and bring your family and friends. The more the merrier.

At Water Town, the midpoint of the trip, we will have a stop where everyone may depart the train. However, if you wish to stay on the train, you are welcome. The train will then do its turnaround so we can journey back towards Nashville. While we are off the train, we will have live entertainment by a Nashville Railroad band called the "Rambling Rails," playing nothing but train songs. Also, prepare to video or photograph our train as it does a run-by for our entertainment and filming. It will then back up so we can re-board. If you haven't previously eaten, now is the time. Included in your ticket price is a coupon for eating on board the train. You have a choice of a freshly made hamburger or a brat, package of chips, a cookie, and choice of soda or water. You are welcome to purchase more with your own money if you so desire. Again, you may eat whenever you choose during our travels. Once we return to the depot, Group A will immediately board the buses for your return trip to the hotel. Group B will now visit the Museum and Restoration Barn. The buses will return to bring Group B back to the hotel approximately one hour after we step off the train.

Notice: At this writing we are still working on special mementos for this trip. The first 250 will get possibly three different gifts commemorating this event. Hopefully we will have enough for everyone, at least one or two gifts if not all three. So, sign up early and guarantee yourself a prize!

Tour #3 – Monday, July 25, 2022
The Parthenon, Union Station,
& Tennessee Capital Building
8:30 a.m. – Noon Limited to 150 people. Ticket $59

On Monday morning we have three very interesting venues to visit - the Union Station, Parthenon and the Tennessee Capital Building. The Union Station was built in 1900 and was an epicenter of American travel. Here you can have a self-guided tour of the magnificent building both inside and out. On the interior you will see a 65 feet tall vaulted ceiling, with marble floors, surrounded by 100 year old stained glass windows. The exterior of the building has a 220 feet tall clock tower that has the statue of Mercury, the Roman God of shopkeepers, merchants, travelers, and transporters of goods. Another stop will be the Tennessee State Capital Building. This fantastic structure had its cornerstone put in place in 1845. We will have a guided tour, taking us throughout the capital to show off its grand marble floors and architecture. Both the Senate and the House chambers, along with the library will be explored. Don't miss the ornamented metal circular staircase! The third venue will be the Parthenon, constructed for the 1897 Centennial Exposition in Centennial Park. Originally, it was to be temporarily built and then removed after the Centennial ended. It was built of plaster, wood and stone, but in 1920, it had fallen in disrepair. The citizens wanted to keep it, so it was rebuilt to the grand beauty we see today. The lower floor contains the history of the building and this main level has many statues, along with many huge paintings. The centerpiece is the statue of Athena and stands 42 feet tall. The beautiful shiny gilt covering contains more than eight pounds of gold leaf.

Tour #4 – Monday, July 25, 2022
Layout Tours in Clarksville and Nashville
1 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. Limited to 150 people.
Ticket $88

The Customs House Museum in Clarksville, Tenn., has an O gauge 13 by 36 foot layout. It was up and running when the new addition to the museum opened in November 1996. Since that date, the “Train Crew” has run, maintained and matured the layout over the years. There are five trains running, 15 interactive push buttons, a street with operating cars and lots of scenery and details to enjoy. There is plenty of room for everyone to walk completely around the display. Of course, there are also trains displayed on shelves and in cabinets. The scenery changes seasonally with “The Circus is in Town” in July for our enjoyment. The Train Crew will be on hand to operate and answer all your questions. In addition, the museum will be dedicating its main gallery to the history of railroading in the greater Clarksville area. These two areas will be open to LCCA. Have you heard the song, “Last Train to Clarksville”?

Another of our layouts in Clarksville will be at a longtime LCCA member, Larry Levin. He is not a charter member but has a very low LCCA number, #1460. Larry started with Lionel trains 72 years ago in 1949 and he is still going strong today. He started his latest layout 23 years ago and has it 95+ percent completed. It is 17 by 35 feet with trains running on five different levels. There are two helices, one helix in each mountain to route trains between these five levels. The layout has beautiful scenery with multiple colored rocks adding to the effect. He has incorporated tinplate buildings and Department 56 Snow Villages. Larry runs TMCC/LEGACY® exclusively along with Lionel, MTH, and K-line accessories. He is very excited about having everyone visit this magnificent work of art.

Our third layout in Clarksville is an H0 gauge located in the lower level of an office building in this railroading community. It started out 30 years ago as a modular group, and then they started looking for a permanent place to call home. A venue was secured around 2000 and work began. As so often happens, they lost their venue but fortunately were able to find another one, and they began all over again. That is the layout we will be visiting Monday. They use a Digitrax dcc control system, and JMRI to setup routes on this point-to-point layout. It is roughly based on the L & N railroad going from Nashville to Louisville, Ky. and then on to Evansville, Ind. Real cities are modeled along the line to help the operators know where things are stationed. The club operates every Saturday for two-hour sessions running 10-12 different trains. This is a numerically small group but one who loves and shares its passion with others. They are excited about our visiting!

We will finish this fun “training day” with a stop on the south side of Nashville at Dr. Jack Fisher’s estate. This location is where a bloody battle took place during the Civil War. The home sits on the very spot of the battle, which is the highest point in all of Nashville. From here you can look North approximately eight miles to view the gorgeous skyline of Nashville. This O gauge layout is primarily based on the Milwaukee Road railroad in Chicago during the mid to late 1950s. You will see lots of Chesapeake and Ohio, Santa Fe, New York Central, and Union Pacific equipment. The main part of the railroad measures 24 x by a whopping 55 feet long, with an additional extension measuring 14 x 10, making it 69 feet from end to end. This marvel includes over 100 engines, both steam and diesel. There are more than 230 passenger cars, and another 280 freight cars. The track is both Gargraves and Ross with 70 Ross switches. The layout includes two turntables and a transfer table. You can get a close-up view of the transfer table as it moves some huge consolidated steam engines right under your nose. Prepare to be amazed. Over 90 automobiles, all with LED lighting, grace the scenery. Don’t miss the Chicago subway train that runs beneath the main station. It has taken Dr. Fisher 18 years to build this masterpiece, and he says it is essentially complete. Also outside is an amazing “G” scale garden railroad. Make sure you take it in as well.

Tour #5 – Tuesday, July 26, 2022
The Hermitage Experience.
8:15 a.m. – 1 p.m. Limited to 150 people.
(Buses depart every 15 minutes) Ticket $67

This tour will take us East of Nashville to The Hermitage. This is the home of Andrew Jackson. This magnificent home and more than 20 historic buildings are a must see. We will start in the Andrew Jackson Center to get a brief look at the history of the home, grounds and Jackson's rise to military hero and his time in the presidency. From there we will walk up a small slope to the mansion itself where an informative guide will brief us and then take us on a guided tour of the mansion. There are two levels which have original furniture from the time President Jackson lived there. The 1,120-acre National Historic Landmark site was owned by Andrew Jackson who was the seventh President of the United States beginning 1804. He died in 1845, and The Hermitage is his final resting place. A self-guided tour outside will take you to different buildings on the site which has an easy walking path to the different spots on the grounds. There will be a discounted wine tasting connected to the Museum Store before we depart back to the hotel. Buses should arrive back every 15 minutes.

Tour #6 – Tuesday, July 26, 2022
The Musicians Hall of Fame
1 p.m. – 5 p.m. Limited to 200 people.
(Time for a quick snack after morning tour and before departing the afternoon tour.) Ticket $59

This afternoon we will travel downtown to visit the "Musicians Hall of Fame." This venue is one of Nashville's greatest attractions. Each exhibit tells the story of a musician you may have heard of or maybe is unfamiliar to you. It's the only museum in the world that honors the talented musicians who actually played on the greatest recordings of all time. Be prepared to spend the afternoon looking at all the exhibits in the giant hall. Be on the lookout for Glen Campbell's guitar, Jimi Hendrix's guitar, and memorabilia from hundreds of other musicians, both past and present.

This museum features all genres of music from jazz to big band; from country to Bluegrass; gospel to blues; rock and roll to hard rock; heavy metal to pop; folk to hymns; and many others, even including some rap.

Tour #7 – Wednesday, July 27, 2022
The Country Music Hall of Fame & Studio B, 8 a.m. – Noon.
Limited to 150 people. Ticket $85

The Country Music Hall of Fame is the most visited venue of all the museums in Nashville. This three-story, 350,000 sq. ft. building is filled with artifacts from all past and present Country Music stars. Starting on the first floor and working your way up will dazzle you. From the early days of country to today's stars, there is plenty to view. Cameras are allowed, so take lots of pictures. The tour will be split up so one group will be going here and another group will be visiting Studio B (R.C.A.). This studio is the well-preserved recording home of Elvis, Chet Atkins, Eddy Arnold, and the Everly Brothers, among others. The exterior of the building has been renovated to its glory days of the past. Once inside, the walls are adorned with pictures of the past and its halls lined with electronic machines, etc. Once we are in the actual recording studio, the lights will go down, and Elvis will sing for you. I guarantee you, it's a sound you've never heard before and one you will never forget. Close your eyes and relive the moments of his early years.

Tour #8 – Wednesday, July 27, 2022
Ryman Auditorium with Back Stage Tour with a stop at “Marathon Village” of American Pickers fame, and other unique shops. 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.
This will be a limited number tour.
Sign up early. Ticket $77

This afternoon's tour will take you to the historic Ryman Auditorium (the mother church of country music) and to Marathon Village. We get off in front of the Auditorium for a photo shoot of your choice outside, then proceed indoors to the original Ryman Auditorium. Here, a tour guide will explain the grandeur of this historic Music Hall. To top this off, you will have a chance to get on stage and have your picture taken for a souvenir to take home (free) for all to enjoy. Pictures are allowed. The other stop will be Marathon Village. This is one of two homes of the American Pickers TV show. You're free to roam the large warehouse building and explore all the other shops that are located there. If you are lucky, you may see some of the people who star on the show. Again, this place has so many things to see, so check out all the little shops that are all located inside.

Tour #9 – Wednesday, July 27, 2022
General Jackson River Boat Cruise, Dinner, and
Live Entertainment 6:20 p.m. – 10:20 p.m.
No limit if you sign up early enough.
Ticket $119

Wednesday evening's dinner cruise will be on the General Jackson. This magnificent paddle wheel boat will take us up and down the "S" shape route of the Cumberland River. From the top deck, you will see the magnificent lighted skyline of Nashville at night, and as we go down to the next deck, be prepared for a fun-filled entertainment and a great dinner. One of the largest dinner boats ever built, this vessel was launched on the Ohio River and then made its way to Nashville on April 20, 1985. Experience not only a great meal & view, but outstanding live entertainment. This cruise will be approximately three hours long.

Tour #10 – Thursday July 28, 2022
Bowling Green, Kentucky for the National Corvette Museum, the Historic RailPark & Train Museum, and the Aviation Heritage Park. This is the day for "Planes, Trains, and Automobiles." A box lunch will be served on the bus while we travel back to Nashville 7 a.m. – 1:15 p.m.
Limited to 150 people. Ticket Price $107

The world famous Corvette Museum is the only one of its kind in the universe. Once you visit, you will see why. There are over 70 Corvettes on display. Don't miss these exhibits: Hot Wheels Race To Win, Corvette Cave-in (cars that survived), Kids Zone, Sky-dome Generations, Nostalgia Area, Corvette Store, Corvette Racing Simulator, the Corvette Nursery, and other sights. Since 1953 the Corvette has been "America's Sports Car." The museum opened in 1994 and is a 115,000 square foot facility located on a 55-acre campus. Bowling Green is home to the world's only General Motors Corvette Assembly Plant.

The RailPark is just a few minutes from the Corvette Museum and is located in the restored 1925 L&N Train Depot. Guides will take us through five restored rail cars, including the Locomotive, L&N Presidential Car, Duncan Hines Dining car, a luxury Pullman sleeper, and a 1921 Post Office car. Also on site are a caboose, a Jim Crow segregation car and a World War II hospital car.

The Aviation Heritage Park honors the aviators and their aircraft. You will be amazed at the beautifully restored War-birds. Sometimes the actual pilots of these planes will be on hand to relive with you their time in these fantastic machines. When they are not available, the docents in charge do an outstanding job explaining all the details.

Tour # 11 – Thursday, July 28, 2022
NOTICE: This will be the exact same Tour as Tour #10 to Bowling Green, Ky., except it will be later in the morning and afternoon.
11 a.m. – 5:15 p.m. This tour will be offered only if Tour #10 sells out completely. Ticket $107

Tour #12 – Thursday, July 28, 2022
The Lane Transportation Museum
2 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. Limited to 150 people.
Ticket Price $47

This museum is in a 132,000 sq. ft. building that served as a bread factory dating back to the 1930s. There are over 650 vehicles of all types located here and most are in operating condition. This is the largest collection of European automobiles in the United States. Standard vehicles and prototypes are also displayed here, along with U. S. Military vehicles and other interesting machines. There are vehicles powered by propeller, fan, steam, electricity, and coal. If you're a car, motorcycle, or an airplane buff, this museum fits all these categories.

Tour #13 – Thursday, July 28, 2022
Downtown Self-Guided Walking Tour of Honky-Tonk Row and Broadway
2 p.m. – 5 p.m. Limited to 100 people.
Ticket Price $39

This is a self-guided tour of Honky-Tonk Row. The bus will let you off at 1st Street close to the river. From there you may walk up to 5th Street (Ryman Auditorium) and then cross the street and return back down the other side to 1st Street where you will reboard the bus. These 5 blocks are loaded with bars, Honky Tonks, gift shops, etc. Visit the GOO Candy Shop, The Ernest Tubb Record Shop, The Johnny Cash Museum, The Patsy Cline Museum, Tootsies Orchid Lounge, and many, many more (be prepared to pay admittance). This is where Willie Nelson, Dierks Bentley, Kris Kristofferson and many more began their careers. There will be many hopeful entertainers singing in these honky-tonks attempting to get noticed like the many stars before them. This jam packed two hours will go fast, so put on your walking shoes, and have fun. Don't linger too long at one place – time yourself going up and then back so you won't be late for the bus.

Tour #14 – Friday, July 29, 2022
Belle Meade Historic Site & Winery, Pennington's Distillery and Tasting, and Tennessee Brewery and Tasting. 8:15 a.m. – 1 p.m. Limit of 150 on this tour.
Ticket Price $123

Today is our big three, the Winery, Distillery, and Brewery tour that will keep your taste buds happy. The Belle Meade Winery is located in historic southwest Nashville. Belle Meade was one of the largest and grandest estates in Nashville. As a previous thoroughbred horse farm, it's been an epicenter of society and social events since the 1800s. Walk the grounds and take a tour of this grand old mansion and the horse barns to be brought back in time. We will have a wine tasting event here at Belle Meade. Another stop will be the Pennington Distillery. The guide will take us to the back of the building to show us all the steps in manufacturing their great spirits. This small privately-owned distillery blends their unique whiskey, bourbon, or rye from the aged barrels in the rick house. Be prepared to try a flight of their beverages (included). The other stop of the day will be Fat Bottoms. This fantastic brewery is located just steps away from Pennington's. Walk in this famous brewery, look at its grand bar, and try out a flight of its different tasting beers produced there. The tour will start with a little history of its great operation, then proceed to the back where you will see the process of making the finest beer in Nashville. If a small flight of samples isn't enough, you can purchase some to take home. In all the venues on this tour, their products can be purchased to be enjoyed later.

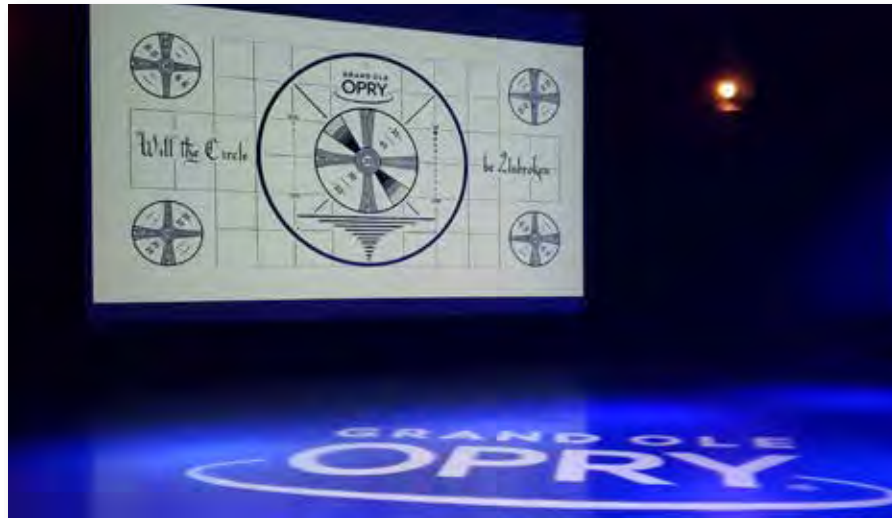

Tour #15 – Saturday, July 30, 2022
Civil War Sites in Franklin, Tennessee
7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. There will be a strict minimum of 150 on this tour.
Ticket Price $85

We will travel 30 miles south of Nashville to the town of Franklin. Walk the streets of this quaint little town and visit the Town Square, along with the streets filled with shops of all sorts. Just south of downtown is the Carter House. This original home and outbuildings are located on the actual battlefield itself. Here you will still see bullet holes left in the walls along the back porch. A cannon ball hole from the Battle of Franklin is still there, covered now with see-through wire so birds won't enter and build nests. The battle here on Nov. 30, 1864 lasted for five hours and resulted in 9,500 casualties – 2,000 dead, 6,500 wounded, and another 1,000 MIA. Another stop on our Civil War tour is the Carnton Home and Museum. This home was built in 1826 and was used as a field hospital after the battle. It has more than 13 rooms, and at the time of the battle, all rooms were filled with wounded soldiers from the South. The grounds around the house were the actual battlefield covered with thousands of wounded and dead. This was one of the bloodiest battles of the Civil War.

Tour #16 – Saturday, July 30, 2022
Grand Ole Opry Auditorium Tour
1:30 p.m. – 4 p.m. Limited to 100 people
Tickets $75

This beautiful auditorium is the current home of the Grand Ole Opry. We will start our tour outside this magnificent building for a photo shoot. Be sure and pose in front of the two huge guitars, one on either side of the main entrance. When going inside, our first stop will be in the custom-built theater as the entire room comes to life with music, 3D film images, and priceless archival films of superstars. Next, if it works out with production, you may be able to step on stage and onto the famed wooden circle as generations of artists have done before. The wooden circle was brought over from the original Ryman Auditorium. Tours may also stop in Studio A, a large television studio and former home of Hee Haw. We will walk the back halls to see some of the Opry's 18 uniquely themed dressing rooms. Many of these are dedicated to the stars who have used them and many who continue to use them today.

IMPORTANT EXTRA TOUR NOTES:

Sheraton Music City Hotel Reservation Form

LCCA Convention in Nashville, Tenn. • July 24-30, 2022

- Reserve Room(s) with a credit card. Do not send currency. Reserve your room(s) at the Sheraton Music City Hotel by phone, online or (least secure) U.S. Mail. Form may be photocopied.
- Mention "LCCA" in your conversation or correspondence to qualify for the LCCA group rate of $149/night.
- Room reservations must be made and confirmed no later than June 26, 2022.
- FREE parking at the hotel.
- For the first time, members will have the option of getting the same standard size rooms facing the hotel's interior courtyard for an additional $5 per night ($154 total per night) or upgrade to a much larger junior suite for an additional $50 per night ($199 total per night). This choice is entirely at the discretion of the member. The hotel still offers the standard hotel room for all members at the contracted price of $149. The club does not benefit in any way if a member elects to get an upgraded room.
